Approved:

 Date

 Governor

(4) Date that early voting by personal appearance will begin, if later than the standard date prescribed by EC §85.001(a) and (c) [EC §85.007(a)].

(5) In a special election to fill a vacancy in office, the deadline for filing an application for a place on the ballot [EC §201.054(c)].

(6) In an emergency election to fill a vacancy in office, a statement identifying the nature of the emergency [EC §41.0011(c)].

(7) In a bond election, the location of each polling place [GC §1251.003(b)].

(8) The statute or charter provision authorizing or requiring submission of a measure should always be consulted for other elements that may be required in the election order.

(c) Certain joint elections. If a city participates in a joint election in which the city secretary or the county clerk is not the early voting clerk, the following additional information must be in the election order:

(1) Dates and hours for early voting [EC §85.007(a)].

(2) Dates and hours for voting on Saturday and Sunday [EC §85.007(a)].

(3) Early voting clerk's official mailing address [EC §83.010].

§10.03. TIME FOR ORDERING THE ELECTION.

(a) General election. In general law cities and home rule cities not having a conflicting charter provision, the general election must be ordered not later than the 45th day before election day [EC §3.005]. A conflicting charter provision or other law supersedes this election code provision [EC §3.002].

Comment: In a sense the ordering of the general election is a formality, since the date of the election and the offices to be filled for full terms are predetermined. In fact, the election code itself provides that failure to order a general election does not affect the validity of the election [EC §3.007]. However, the election order serves as an official confirmation of the offices to be filled, and it is desirable to have that confirmation at hand before the beginning of the period for candidates to file for a place on the ballot. The election should be ordered shortly before the opening of the filing period on the 75th day before election day, and it is suggested that a copy of the order be posted on the official bulletin board throughout the filing period. See M §12.12 on amendment of the order if a vacancy to be filled at that election arises after the order is issued.

(b) Other elections. The deadlines for ordering other elections may appear in law authorizing the election that is outside the election code, but the following are some other deadlines:

(1) Special election to fill a vacancy: 30th day before the date of the election unless a law outside the election code authorizes the election to be held earlier than the 30th day after the order [EC §201.052]. [See M §13.04].

(2) Runoff election: 5th day after the final canvass of the first election [EC §2.024]. [See M §14.04].
